

2021-22 Preview

For the first time in 12 years, the Indiana State basketball team will open the year under new leadership as first-year head coach Josh Schertz takes over the reins of the program. Schertz takes over after a 13-year run at NCAA Division II Lincoln Memorial University where he had a career record of 337-69 (.831) en route to four national coach of the year honors. Schertz led the Railsplitters to 10 NCAA Division II Tournament appearances, won 14 total conference championships and three Southeast Regional titles, and had five seasons of 30-or-more victories.

Schertz returns three starters from the 2020-21 season in which the Sycamores finished fourth in the Missouri Valley Conference. First Team All-MVC honoree Tyreke Key (17.2 ppg) will return for a fifth season while being joined in the backcourt by Cooper Neese (9.5 ppg) and Julian Larry (4 ppg).

A fifth-year senior guard for the Sycamores in 2021, Key paved the way for ISU in 2020-21 averaging a team-high 17.2 points per contest. Along with his scoring output Key also pulled down 5.3 rebounds and two assists per game. A Celina, Tennessee product, Key led the MVC with 33.9 minutes per game while increasing his scoring output to 18.6 points per game during conference action. The fourth-fastest player to join the 1,000-point club in program history, Key sits sixth all time with 1,650 career points – needing 22 points to pass Butch Wade (1,672) and 110 points to pass Brenton Scott (1,760).

Neese and Larry each started 21 games for the Sycamores in 2020-21. A Cloverdale, Indiana native, Neese shot 41.2 percent from the field, 39.1 percent from behind the arc and 81.6 percent from the free-throw line while scoring in double-digits in 10 games. Larry was steady at the point guard position, averaging four points, 1.6 assists and 1.1 steals per game. The only other returning for ISU that saw game action was walk-on Sam Mervis. Returning forwards Kailex Stephens and Nick Hittle each missed the year with injuries.

Eight new faces joined the Sycamores this season including three from Schertz' program Lincoln Memorial: Xavier Bledson, Cameron Henry and Simon Wilbar. Dearon Tucker (Oregon State), Zach Hobbs (Des Moines Area CC) and Micah Thomas (Northwest Florida State College) round out the transfers while Quimari Peterson (Gary, Ind./West Side HS) and Cameron Crawford (Hoover, Ala./Spain Park HS) enter as first-year freshmen.

For the first time since $50 million renovations took place, ISU fans will have the opportunity to enjoy the upgrades in person.

Four-time national coach of the year Josh Schertz was named Indiana State University's 26th head men's basketball coach by Director of Athletics Sherard Clinkscales Wednesday, March 17.

Schertz comes to Terre Haute after an exceptional 13-year tenure as head coach at NCAA Division II Lincoln Memorial University in Harrogate, Tennessee, where he had a career record of 337-69 (.831). Schertz led the Railsplitters to 10 NCAA Division II Tournament appearances, won 14 total conference championships and three Southeast Regional titles, and had five seasons of 30-or-more victories.

Lincoln Memorial was the second-winningest basketball program in Division II during the 2010s, going 272-50 for a .845 winning percentage. The Railsplitters were masterful at protecting their home court during the Schertz era, going 188-16 (.921) in Harrogate.

While under Schertz' leadership, LMU was a model of consistency, posting 11 consecutive 20-win seasons and making 10 trips to the NCAA Tournament. The Railsplitters became just the second team in the history of Division II basketball to post four consecutive 30-win seasons from 2014-18, while their streak of 95-straight weeks in the national poll was the second-longest of all time. LMU has finished the season ranked in the top two nationally for three years and has held the top spot in the country on 10 different occasions since 2012. During his tenure, the Railsplitters have notched five 30-win seasons and claimed at least 25 wins nine times.

The 20-win seasons, South Atlantic Conference regular season and tournament championships, as well as the postseason wins, national ranking and NCAA Tournament appearances were all first-time occurrences for the LMU men's basketball program during its NCAA era. In the five seasons prior to coach Schertz' arrival, the Railsplitters had won only 39 games total after posting just seven winning seasons at the NCAA level.

Schertz' dedication to excellence in every area of the program has resulted not just in unparalleled success for his teams, but for individual players as well. His commitment to player development has resulted in a nation-leading nine All-Americans since 2011. LMU produced 17 professional players since 2011, the most among any Division II program during the timespan, to go along with five conference players of the year and 45 all-league selections.

In the classroom, the numbers were just as astounding as the focus on academics by Schertz' staff has led to the eight highest semester grade point averages in program history. Schertz has witnessed 34 of 37 seniors who have completed their playing eligibility at LMU graduate. Along with the 17 who have signed professional basketball contracts, 15 of Schertz' former players have received their master's degrees.

Prior to his time at Lincoln Memorial, Schertz spent five seasons at High Point University as the associate head coach. While there, the Panthers went 87-66 and set program records for wins, conference wins, road wins, and highest RPI ranking in a season.

Schertz spent the previous four seasons at Division II Queens University (N.C.) as well as Lynn University, serving as associate head coach and recruiting coordinator, respectively. While at Queens, the Royals went 49-14 and advanced to the university's first Final Four. During his time at Lynn, the Fighting Knights went 37-18 and his recruiting classes went on to set a school record 29 wins in a season and earn a Final Four appearance.

His coaching career began at his alma mater, Florida Atlantic University, where he spent one season working under head coach Kevin Billerman.
